Booster Pad Updates August, 2024

The Attends® Booster Pads has recently undergone a supply change and packaging refresh. We apologize for the unexpected service level issues and will be back in a fully healthy inventory position over the next 2-3 months. During that time period the new Booster Pads will be temporarily packaged in white bags with only the barcode, in an effort to swiftly manage and distribute the inventory.

We are pleased to announce that the NEW Attends® Booster Pads boasts a 13% increase in total absorbency.* The product number and packaging configuration will remain the same.
