Re: Scott Kitchen Roll Towels (41482) Allocation

Dear North American Kimberly-Clark Professional Customer,

Effective Monday, April 7, Scott Kitchen Roll Towels (41482) will be going on allocation due to supply disruptions.

We have implemented several measures to minimize supply disturbances, and our teams are diligently working to stabilize inventory levels. To mitigate the impacts, 41482 will be managed through order allocations for the next 60-90 days based on available inventory, historical usage patterns of the past six months and seasonality.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation as we strive to return to normal service levels. If you have any questions, please contact your KCP Sales Representative.

Sincerely,
Ignacio Suit
