Dear Valued Customer,

Thank you for choosing Cardinal Health™ as your provider of exam gloves. This letter is to inform you of the upcoming discontinuation of Cardinal Health™ Sterile Single Nitrile Exam Gloves.

At Cardinal Health, we are committed to streamlining our product offering to ensure a consistent supply that meets your needs. Our Sterile Single Nitrile Exam Gloves in the 50-count box will be replaced with a 100-count box. The performance and intended use will remain unchanged. Stock levels of the 50-count box have been limited, and we will be completely out of stock soon. Please ensure to place orders for the new codes which will be available in late March. Please refer to Table 1 on the following page for details on the impacted product codes.

Recommended Next Steps

Please work with your Cardinal Health sales representative to identify the best potential product substitutions to meet your needs.
